

ARACHNE: NORDIC NETWORK FOR GENDER STUDIES AND WOMEN'S HISTORY IN ANTIQUITY

I. ARACHNE NORDIC WORKSHOP:

THE ROMAN FAMILY AND COMMEMORATION

SWEDISH INSTITUTE IN ROME

27-29 JANUARY 2010

We invite applications to the 2010 workshop on commemoration and gender perspectives in relation to the Roman family. The workshop will take place at the Swedish Institute in Rome, and in museums in Rome. Students at master level, postgraduate students and post docs from universities in the Nordic countries are eligible. Participation in the workshop is open to those would like to engage in new research on topics related to the combination of commemoration, gender and social values as well as to those already involved in this field of research.

Those interested in taking part in the workshop should send an abstract of c. 300 words on a proposed topic for discussion at the workshop. The individual presentations are limited to 25 minutes but will be followed by discussion. The application must also include your full name, academic affiliation, academic level, and an email address. Proposals should be submitted not later than 4 December 2009 to: arachne@class.gu.se. A contribution for travel expenses and accommodation (either at the Swedish or the Finnish Institute) will be paid to each participant of the workshop. N.B. the number of participants is limited.

The workshop is a collaboration between the universities in Gothenburg, Tromsø, Helsinki, Tampere and the Swedish and Finnish Institutes in Rome. It is being funded by NordForsk.
