

Rethinking Landscape

Workshop, 12 Dec 2017 (Pääatalo, LS E301)

10:15-11:15

Adelene Buckland (King's College London), "Scaling the Anthropocene: Problems in the Geological Imagination"

11:15-12:15

Heidi Hansson (Umeå University), "Landscape as Plot, Place and Perspective"

12:15-13:15

Lunch

13:15-14:45

Session 1

- Markku Salmela, "Reframing Landscape"
- Mika Perkiömäki, "Landscape as Myth, Landscape as Science"
- Essi Vatiolo, "Shifting the Political/Ideological Landscape"
- Laura Pihkala-Posti, "Virtual Landscapes as Experiential Language Learning Environments"

14:45-15:00

Coffee break

15:00-16:00

Session 2

- Toni Lahtinen, "The Anthropocene and the Bird's Nest as a Utopian Landscape"
- Johannes Riquet, "Reshaping the Land"
- Arja Rosenholm, "Who is the 'Inner Mover' in the Russian Northern Landscape?"

18:00

Dinner (Pikkubistro Kattila, Hallituskatu 5, Tampere)

Registration

To sign up for the workshop, send an e-mail to johannes.riquet@uta.fi by Friday 8 December; please specify whether you will come to the dinner (at your own expense).

The workshop is organised by the Research Group on Spatial Studies and Environmental Humanities, Plural Research Centre (COMS).

Contact: Johannes Riquet (johannes.riquet@uta.fi)